FLAG AT HALF-MAST.

Department of Agriculture in Mourning over the Death of Ex-Secretary Rusk.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Secretary Morton, at the cabinet meeting, called the attention of President Cleveland to the death of Ex-Secretary Rusk, and the president directed that an order be issued placing the flag over the department of agriculture at half-mast.

Secretary Morton, speaking of the late secretary, said: "I never saw him until I came to Washington last spring. I could not help liking him, as was the case with everybody else who knew him. His jovial, large-hearted manner was a great help when in the office at a peculiarly fortunate time. His death is a great loss."

The department of agriculture will not be draped in mourning out of respect to the memory of Ex-Secretary Rusk, nor will the building be closed Tuesday nor on the day of the funeral, because of the adoption of the following amendment to the last legislative appropriation bill: "Hereafter, no building owned or used for public purposes by the government of the United States shall be draped in mourning, and no part of the public fund shall be used for such purposes."

"That heretofore the executive department of the government has been closed as a mark of respect to the memory of any deceased ex-official of the United States."

Secretary of Agriculture J. Sterling Morton issued the following order Tuesday: "By direction of the president of the United States, the death Tuesday of Gen. J. M. Rusk, at his home, at Virgo, Wis., is announced. He was for the four years ending March 4, 1893, secretary of the department of agriculture. Gen. Rusk was a brave and generous man. In military and civil life he was conspicuous for his services to the republic. Not for a generation will the American people forget him. This commemoration of his work is in accordance with an established custom, and in perfect harmony with the affectionate regard in which he was universally held by his countrymen. The United States flag, the department of agriculture is hereby ordered to remain at half-mast during the month."

THE LEDGER

is the largest daily paper printed in Nashville—contains the columns and measure their length.

It gives you more reading matter than any other.

It is sold at the same price as any other Nashville paper—only one cent.

For 12 cents a month, delivered by carrier, or sent by mail, it is the best value for the money you get for it.

Now is the time to subscribe—suppose you give it a month's trial.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Editor of THE LEDGER is not responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents; but nothing reflecting upon the character or habits of any person will be admitted in these columns.

Correspondents will please send letters to us not later than 10 o'clock a. m. Other facts as far words as possible. We want news to this department, and not advertising matter or political arguments.
